

Dependability from coast to coast.

Wherever you are across the USA, when you call on American Bolt & Screw, chances are you'll be served by a seasoned pro who's been with the company for 10 years or more. Expect the very best in convenience, quality, service, and knowledgeable people. We cover the map from Pacific to Atlantic, and for decades we've covered the fastener and hardware needs of the modular manufacturing industry like no other supplier.

Depend on the people who know manufacturing from A to Z. Call 800.325.0844, or visit: absfasteners.com
